The NMA will be discussing motorist issues that interest and concern members, and what the Association can do to address these issues. They have booked the museum's auto art gallery, which holds about 90 people, from 12:00 to 2:30 for the meeting. The meeting is limited to members only, but will be open to friends of members after Jan 23rd as space permits. If you would like to join the NMA, go online to www.motorists.org and sign. They will be providing food and refreshments to supplement the NMA discussion.
